

Outreach Angels Lone Working Policy

At Outreach Angels the safety & welfare of our volunteers is paramount. It is required for volunteers to remain together in at least 2's at all times & inform management if they are separated from the group for any reason.

Management will ensure there are a sufficient number of volunteers for outreach sessions in advance.

A full risk assessment for lone working must be carried out before lone working is approved.